Kathmandu UNESCO sites map

The seven monument zones of the Kathmandu Valley World Heritage property, inscribed in 1979.

Dots show each site's location. Map data © OpenStreetMap contributors.

Site	Foreign	SAARC	Indian	Chinese	km
1. Swayambhunath	200	50	50	200	2.0
2. Kathmandu Durbar Square	1,000	500	500	1,000	1.2
3. Patan Durbar Square	1,000	500	500	500	4.9
4. Bhaktapur Durbar Square	1,800	500	500	500	12.5
5. Changu Narayan	300	100	100	300	11.6
6. Boudhanath	400	100	100	400	5.1
7. Pashupatinath	1,000	1,000	Free	1,000	3.8
All seven (NPR)	5,700	2,750	1,750	3,900

Fees in Nepali rupees, as listed by the Nepal Tourism Board on 5 November 2026. They can change, and some sources list other figures. Distance is a straight line from Thamel, so roads are longer.

Before you go

- Carry cash in Nepali rupees for tickets.
- Cover your shoulders and knees at temples, and take off your shoes where asked.
- The main temple at Pashupatinath is for Hindus only. Everyone can visit the grounds.
- Walk clockwise around stupas and shrines.
- Don't photograph the Kumari, worshippers, mourners or cremations.

More guides and tours: kathmanduvalleytours.com/guide/unesco-map/